ANNAH RAIS LONGHOUSE TOUR (SIC)

TOUR DESCRIPTION
(Tour Duration: Approximately 4 hours)
Depart on a one and a half hour drive through the lush and beautiful scenic countryside, rubber trees and padi fields. Here, nestled in the edge of Sarawak’s forest lies a Bidayuh, also known as land Dayaks, longhouse where many families of the tribe live together sharing a long outer communal room and open verandah. Like other tribes in Borneo, the Bidayuhs were former headhunters and skulls of ancient days can still be seen in the baruk head house. Meet the usually barefooted men and shy women who are always busy with their daily chores. Daily activities involve collecting jungle produce as well as hill rice farming. Visit a pepper garden where pepper vines curl around a wooden post to form a gigantic cone-shaped plant. Annah Rais is considered one of the most beautiful land dayak longhouses in Sarawak with mountains scenery and freshwater stream.

NOTE: Flat walking shoes and a cap or hat are recommended.
