BAKO NATIONAL PARK (SIC)

TOUR DESCRIPTION
(Tour Duration: Full Day Trip)
Bako National Park, situated about 38 km from Kuching, can be reached by road and unsheltered motorised boat in half an hour. Depart Kuching in the morning by road passing beautiful Nipah palms and mangrove swamps. Arrive at Kampong Bako fishing village and transfer by boat to reach the park. Visitors will discover an abundance of botanical treasures, numerous species of birds and animals such as the long-nosed proboscis monkeys, long-tailed macaques, wild boars, sambar deers and monitor lizards that live in this coastal rainforest. See the marvellous and fascinating weathering process such as hemispherical cavities, vegetation change from mangrove, kerangas to padang forest. Well demarcated systems of paths within the park may be followed without difficulties. Return to Kuching in the late afternoon.

NOTE: Tour includes lunch box/local lunch at Park Canteen
Tour not available during October-February due to adverse weather conditions
Please bring Insect repellent, swim wear, sun block, hat and drinking water
Wear good walking shoes and light clothing
