Day 2  Da Nang – Hoi An – Ancient Town – My Son Sanctuary – Da Nang
Early morning, depart for UNESCO World’s Heritage Sites ~ MY SON SANCTUARY approximately 45 KM and durations of journey takes 60 minutes. This is a remarkable archaeological site dating back more than a thousand years with a cluster of abandoned and partially ruined Hindu temples constructed between the 4th and the 14th century AD by the kings of Champa. The temple was a site of religious ceremony for kings of the ruling dynasties of Champa, as well as a burial place for Cham royalty and national heroes. At one time, the site encompassed over 70 temples as well as numerous stele bearing historically important inscriptions in Sanskrit and Cham, the sensual artwork on these works depicts daily activities as well as Hindu and Buddhist religious themes. Then continue journey to HOI AN, approximately 40 KM and durations of journey takes 60 minutes. Appointed tour guide will escort guests for GUIDED WALKING TOUR in the ancient town, entrance ticket covers five attractions: Japanese Covered Bridge, Quan Cong Temple, Guangzhou Associations & Assembly Hall, one museum and one handicraft shop. Guests may enjoy free time for shopping bargains here too. After dinner complete, return to DA NANG and tour programs end.

GENERAL INFO OF HOI AN:
HOI AN once known as Faiño, with more than 2,000 years history, was the principal port of the Cham Kingdom, which controlled the strategic spice trade with Indonesia from the 7th to the 10th century and was a major international port in the 16th and 17th centuries and the foreign influences are discernible to this day. The culture & heritage is mostly from the Cham people whose kingdom originally stretched from Hue South to Phan Thiet (South of Nha Trang) - the Champa's most likely originally from Java. The original Cham political capital was Tra Kieu, the commercial capital was Hoi An and the spiritual capital was My Son (Hindu). The Cham people were Hindu, and by the 10th century the influence of Arab traders to Hoi An resulted in some converting to become Muslims. The second major influence was from the Chinese, firstly from traders but especially the escaping Ming Dynasty armies who after settling in Hoi An for some years moved further south and created Saigon as a major trading port. The third and last major influence of culture & heritage was from the Vietnamese and is fairly recent and only came after the Cham lost control of this area. While the serious shipping business has long since moved to Da Nang, the heart of the city is still the Old Town, full of winding lanes and Chinese-styled shop-houses which is particularly atmospheric as the sun goes down. While almost all shops now cater to the tourist trade, the area has been largely preserved as is, which is unusual in Vietnam, and renovation has proceeded slowly and carefully - it's mercifully absent of towering concrete blocks and karaoke parlours.
